Thanks for the update, Ron.

Meanwhile, I just got off the phone with Colonel Guion Bluford. He has agreed to be the alumni representative on the condition that we will be "economical" with his time. He understands that his participation will become public Monday. I now believe our Committee is fully formed.

Just wanted to make you aware & see if you wanted to weigh in -

I received a call from WTAJ-TV (Jeff Preval) in State College, saying the Penn State faculty senate is holding an emergency meeting as we speak.

The group apparently believes only people without ties to Penn State should be on the investigative committee – that means no faculty, no students, no grads, no trustees – a completely outside committee. (Sec. Tomalis, apparently is okay)

The reporter is looking for a statement from the Governor about this matter whether he still supports the committee as it's comprised now
