Subject: Your statement

To every member of the Penn State Board of Trustees:

Every one of you is just as responsible for Joe Paterno's death as the cancer that weakened him. Joe Paterno was and always will be Penn State. You are a self-righteous, hypocritical bunch of self-serving cowards and will never represent Penn State. I hope that you all apply the same standard of behavior to yourselves as you did to Joe Paterno. Every single one of you knew as much as Joe Paterno did---second-hand rumors. You all should resign. But knowing that there is not a speck of honor or integrity in the whole group I know that won't happen. Therefore, I along with thousands of Penn State alumni will work harder than ever to bring about your resignations. You are not and will never be Penn State. We will work to get our University back. I hope that you at least have the good sense not to show up at the funeral. You stabbed the man in the back and I seriously doubt that any member of the Paterno family would want to see any of your lying faces. Your press conference was embarrassing! Anne Riley's fake empathy for Joe Paterno was laughable! I will not abandon Penn State because all of you have destroyed it. I will work that much harder until every last one of you is gone from the Board. I hope Joe Paterno's death haunts you for the rest of your lives. To quote Sue Paterno, "He deserved better than that."

Working to restore the glory,
