PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL

As part of its investigation, the Freeh Group has asked for copies of emails sent by or received by each of the trustees from December 1, 2010 to the present. Specifically, the Freeh Group has requested "[a]ll Board e-mails, including e-mails that Board members may have sent among themselves but not to the entire group. We also want to see e-mails that all Board members sent to members of the University administration and athletic departments. Note that the Board members can omit group e-mails sent from the public relations firm hired by PSU after the presentment to monitor media events."

Pursuant to the last sentence, the "Trends Updates" and "Issues Updates" emails that you have received from Paula need not be delivered.

The Freeh Group would prefer, if possible, that emails be copied to a disc or thumb drive, rather than being printed and delivered in paper form.

Paula Ammerman will be able to arrange for technical assistance from the University's IT staff if needed. Please contact Paula if you need assistance in complying with this request.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you
