I hope that when this thing gets to a public announcement, Mark Emmert will clearly describe the strength of feeling on the board regarding the possible application of the death penalty etc., and point out that the actions of Penn State in hiring Freeh and on the corrective side were fully considered ... along with some of the other factors we discussed.

In bringing the "community" along in buying in to this - way beyond Penn State - folks need to have that understanding. And the folks who are trying to do things right deserve and are due that clear explanation.
