I think Emmert is leading this charge. Emmert is supposed to be calling Pres. Erickson. Maybe he could get a feel for the idea then.

Think requesting a meeting with Emmert in Indy is in order? Harder to reject reasonable positions when you're face to face

I find it hard to believe that they wouldn't, just to be able to say that they used due process. The cumulative effect of these sanctions will cripple the football program, and as a consequence, the other 29 varsity programs, for at least a decade, maybe longer. Is that what they want?

I spoke with Pres. Erickson just now.

Separate from that conversation - can you take this much away from a school without an opportunity to be heard?
